I place sofas and lipstick in the same category — love at first site only to be betrayed by their real characters after a few hours of sitting or wearing. The Ligne Roset Prado sofa is chic and cleverly versatile but also remarkably comfortable. This unique sofa is functional art: you can curl up, recline or place the weighted back cushions on the floor. Position it in the middle of the room or against a wall — it's perfect. I think my latest crush is destined to be a love affair. Now, if only I could find the right shade of ...

The Carmen Sofa by Robert Allen has wonderful lines that appeal to a broad range of both younger and established clients. It's completely versatile for classical interiors as well as for streamlined modern vignettes. It sits wonderfully, and the customization options and price point make it exceptionally versatile. With a six- to eight-week lead time and the fact it's American-made, Carmen is a great option on so many levels.
